

Arun Wakhlu is the Founder Director and Chief Mentor of Pragati Leadership, based in Pune, India. A spiritually inspired and professionally skilled community working with leading clients in 29 countries, Pragati Leadership works to unfold sustainable value for all stakeholders. He also serves at Pragati Foundation, an NGO working for catalysing sustainable livelihoods and compassion in education. He believes that LIFE is Love in Full Expression, and uses a JEEP test for all his work now- does this lead to expansion of Joy, Energy, Enthusiasm and Peace in me and others? He is committed to bringing together leadership and compassion, to birth a new world.

5 questions for Yogesh

---

What makes you come alive?

Remembering that all of life is One Wholeness. Everyone and everything is a part of this One Wholeness. All is alive and interconnected and governed by an Infinite Creative intelligence. What makes me come alive is to be One with the creative LILA (Play) of Love In Loving Action

What was a pivotal turning point in your life?

Taking Sannyas and getting a new name : Swami Amano Gaurav

An act of kindness you'll never forget?

My wife forgave me for a major transgression, which could have ended our marriage.

One thing on your bucket list?

To write 1001 poems from my Heart >> Poems celebrating the Love, Gratitude, Light , Joy and Abundance of Life.

Your one-line message to the world?

Awaken to the magnificent Wholeness that you are. Celebrate each moment with laughter, play, and awareness. Share your gifts in service, totally and completely, being the Infinite Love that you already are.