Ask a question that starts with one of the following: Who, What, When, Where, Why or How.

If you can change something you said or did in the past, what would it be?

Start the first line of a limerick. Let each person add a line.